Located in a prime, elevated position within La Marquesa, Rojales, this charming two-storey semi-detached villa offers beautiful panoramic views of the Crevillente Mountains. Access to the property is via a private community driveway, ensuring both privacy and peace. Outside, the property features a fully tiled patio area and off-road parking. Upon entering, a lovely glazed terrace leads into the spacious and bright lounge-diner. The ground floor also comprises a bathroom, a bedroom, a fully fitted kitchen, and a practical separate utility room. Moving upstairs, you will find the second bathroom and the second bedroom, which offers direct access to the impressive private roof solarium. This solarium is the perfect spot. (Ask for More Details)
