Intasun Homes is delighted to present this traditional townhouse in the heart of Rojales, located just a few steps from the church square. The main selling point of this property is undoubtedly its unbeatable central location. Living here will allow you to walk within minutes to all essential daily amenities, including banks, government offices, shops, and a fantastic variety of bars and restaurants. Furthermore, just 500 metres away is the fairground, where the typical Rojales street market takes place every Thursday-the perfect place to immerse yourself in the local atmosphere and purchase all kinds of fresh, local produce. Upon entering the property, the ground floor welcomes you with a spacious lounge, diner. (Ask for More Details)
