Located in the hills of Altea La Vella, this two-level villa sits on a large, landscaped plot with south-facing views towards the mountains and the sea.

The ground floor is bright and open, with living and dining areas that flow into each other and a separate, functional kitchen. Large windows bring in light throughout the day, and the layout works equally well for everyday living or entertaining guests.

The bedrooms are quiet and comfortable, with a straightforward, well-finished feel. The entire upper floor is given over to the master suite, which has its own bathroom and direct access to a private rooftop terrace, a good spot for morning coffee or a drink. (Ask for More Details)
